IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: (1) This bill provides that a school corporation may include in its curriculum as an elective a study of world literature, including the Bible and other similar great works of literature.

(2) It requires the Indiana State Board of Education and the Professional Standards Board to jointly develop and report to the Legislative Council by January 1, 2002, a plan to implement the "Academic Study of Religion in Secondary Schools," which was implemented in Indiana in 1978, 1979, and 1980.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (1) Currently, Biblical Literature is offered as an approved high school course for one credit under the curriculum area of English/Language Arts. In addition, World Literature is also offered as an approved high school course for one credit under the same curriculum area.

Since the Department of Education already provides curriculum assistance for courses contained within English/Language Arts (including World and Biblical Literature), there would be no additional cost to the State regarding this portion of the bill.

(2) The Department of Education and the Professional Standards Board would likely experience a minimal increase in administrative costs associated with the provisions of this bill. These figures are currently indeterminable and dependent upon implementation.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: (1) This bill would allow school corporations to offer elective high school instruction regarding World Literature including the Bible. Currently, school corporations are already allowed to offer World and Biblical Literature electives via the curriculum area of Language/Arts. It is not likely that the provisions of this bill would result in additional administrative time or cost to school corporations.
